Course Study Descriptions

YEAR ONE STUDIES:

New Testament Survey

An introduction to the authorship and contents of the New Testament books

Special attention will be given to important persons, places, events, as well as to key chapters in the New Testament revelation.

This course is structured to help the student interpret New Testament biblical passages in their proper context. Within the New Testament, there are insights to mankind, teachings for virtuous living, truths about the Savior, and principles for living an abundant life for Christ. The student will also be challenged to evaluate traditional and critical options of interpretation.

History of the Bible

A study of how the Bible came into being, its authors, and its development over time to this present age

The Bible is not only the leading best-seller of all time, but is also the most important book of all time. The Bible did not just 'happen,' nor was it preserved by accident or without effort. Students will discover how the divine hand of God protected and guided the writing of the blessed manuscripts containing His very words.

Communion With God

A discovery of how to hear the voice of God and how to experience fellowship with God

Students will learn how to identify, recognize, and 'tune in to' the voice of God. Students will be introduced to various ways God chooses to communicate with His children such as through journaling, visualizing, and meditation. This course will develop a hunger and an appreciation for fellowship and communion with God.

The Blood Covenant

A study of the significance, power, and benefits of the covenant of promise between God and believers; a realization of the seriousness of God's covenant agreement with man and the great effort God put forth to secure man in Himself for eternity

Most Christians today have little to no understanding of the power of the blood covenant in Jesus Christ. This course will solidify the depth of the covenant and the intent of God as He bound Himself to man through blood.

How to Study the Bible

This course will present basic facts about the Bible and give students several methods by which to organize his/her study.

Students will be introduced to various tools of study to be used in cooperation with the Bible. Special emphasis will be given to Strong's Concordance.

The Life and Ministry of Jesus — Part I

This course will familiarize the student with the major events of the life of Jesus Christ while He was on the earth from the viewpoint of the Synoptic Gospels. Emphasis will be placed on the historical, social, religious, political, and cultural backgrounds of that period in history.

By understanding the life and ministry of Jesus, students will be better equipped and more confident in sharing the truth of the Gospel with others.

YEAR TWO STUDIES:

Old Testament Survey

An introduction to the authorship and contents of the Old Testament books

Special attention will be given to important persons, places and events, as well as to key chapters in the Old Testament revelation.

This course will survey the literature, events, and message of the Old Testament, including the organization, historical context, and basic geography of the Old Testament. The student will also be exposed to the foundation that the Old Testament lays for the New Testament and how the promise of the coming Messiah sets the stage for the New Testament.

The Tabernacle

A detailed study concerning the meaning and typical teachings of all the various parts of the Tabernacle with consideration to its construction, structure, furniture, and arrangement; a discovery of how the Tabernacle was designed and patterned by God to present Jesus Christ

The Tabernacle is a compelling and indispensable visual aid for explaining Christ's work on the Cross.

Foundational Doctrines

A foundational course that surveys basic doctrines of the church with special attention given to key terms, concepts, and biblical texts

This study will include, but is not limited to, subjects such as soteriology, the doctrine of the Trinity, hamartiology, ecclesiology, eschatology, the doctrine of God, the doctrine of Jesus, and the doctrine of the Holy Spirit.

Fundamentals of Evangelism and Outreach

A course designed to help students develop an effective method of evangelism based on scripture; marketplace evangelism; evangelism on the mission field

This course will help a student develop confidence in sharing his/her faith with unbelievers by considering cultural, educational, political, emotional, and religious barriers.

The Authority of the Believer

A discovery of the Kingdom authority bestowed upon a believer by the Lord Jesus Christ at the moment of salvation; a course to help the student realize their covenant rights in Christ as a believer and how to operate out of His authority to live in victory; a study to develop students as ambassadors of the Lord Jesus and to live out of the promises of God's Word

Students will learn how to walk in the authority of Christ, stand on the Word of God, and minister in the power of Jesus' name with confidence and without fear or intimidation.

YEAR THREE STUDIES:

Redemptive Realities

Students will experience a study of the book of Ephesians with attention to the believer's position in Christ as a result of the Cross, our identification with Christ, and the miracle of the Body of Christ.

Survey of the Early History of the Church

This survey is a study of the birth and early history of the Church with a concentration on the book of Acts. This course will include a study of the early Church and the Church in the medieval period leading up to the Reformation.

The Great Awakenings

A historical overview of the four Great Awakenings in Christian history with a look at the leaders involved in the Awakenings. Students will discover what caused them, what kept them, and what capped them!

The Making(s) of a Disciple

Jesus has commanded all believers to make disciples. The Great Commission calls us to work with other believers in the church in order to produce disciples and flood the world with knowledgeable, articulate Christians who worship God and follow Jesus Christ passionately. This class will help the student learn how to develop disciples as he continues to develop as a disciple himself.

The Battle of Spirit and Flesh

In this course, the student will realize the fullness of the power of salvation, develop a balanced understanding of grace, and consider the idea of dual natures in the believer as presented in the book of Romans.

Revivalists and Reformers

A study of various historical individuals who had great influence on the development of Christianity, the formation and continued growth of the New Testament Church, and the spread of the Gospel of Jesus Christ

Students will gain a greater appreciation for the founding fathers and mothers of the faith as this course presents the price paid by many courageous individuals who protected and fought for the Church and the message of Jesus.

The Life and Ministry of Jesus — Part II

Christianity is rooted in Judaism. Christians cannot exist without Judaism. Before Jesus became a Christian Lord He was a Jewish brother. The Life and Ministry of Jesus, Part II is a study of the Synoptic Gospels with a consideration of Judaism in the life of Jesus and how that influences His Christian disciples today.

YEAR FOUR STUDIES:

The Book of Ephesians

A verse-by-verse study of the book of Ephesians; this study also includes background history of the city of Ephesus, the founding of the Christian church, and the doctrine shared by Paul that is still applicable and relevant to the Church today

The Supernatural Ministry of Healing

A brief study of the healing ministry of Jesus and the blessing of healing as promised in the atonement; Students will learn how to pray for, believer for, and minister healing to others with love, compassion, and a sense of value for the person to whom they minister. This class seeks to encourage students in establishing a natural discipleship lifestyle of providing healing prayer ministry in their local church and community.

Spiritual Disciplines

Founder of IHOP, author, pastor, and teacher Mike Bickle said, "The power of God tenderizes and changes us, not spiritual disciplines. But it is spiritual disciplines that position us to receive." Students will study spiritual disciplines such as gratitude, stewardship, secrecy, worship, and solitude with as extensive emphasis on prayer and fasting. By understanding the need to exercise certain disciplines, a student will begin to make room for the presence of God in their lives and position themselves for an encounter with God.

Other:

Church Leadership

This study of the Pastoral Epistles will provide an understanding of New Testament leadership and ministry. Particular attention will be given to the 5-fold ministry offices and their relationship and calling to the body of Christ. Emphasis will be given to issues such as leadership qualifications, organization, structure, doctrine, behavior, and false teachers.

Keys to Supernatural Ministry

This course will discuss the elements that must be practiced to unlock supernatural ministry in the life of a believer. These elements include a strong prayer life, the private prayer language, fasting, worship, and understanding the operations of the Holy Spirit in ministry.

Pentecostal/Charismatic History

A survey of the origin, growth, and impact of the Pentecostal/Charismatic church; a study of the founding fathers and mothers of the Pentecostal movement; a tracing of the Pentecostal Movement

World Religions

A survey of some of the prominent religions and belief systems in the world today

By gaining a better understanding of the belief systems of various religions, a student will be better equipped to evangelize those of a different faith for the Lord Jesus Christ.

Christian Worldview and Ethics

Science defines ethics as “a set of moral principles, the study of morality.” Therefore, Christian ethics would be the principles derived from the Christian faith by which we act. In this study, students will understand the way a believer is expected to live based on scripture. While the Bible does not cover every situation a person may encounter in life, it certainly gives guidelines and principles by which believers should conduct themselves to bring glory to God.

The Genesis Course

Students will be introduced to the Bible and doctrines originating in Genesis, including the origin of mankind, civilization, sin and evil, as well as the universe as seen through Christianity. Stories about biblical personalities such as Jacob, Abraham, Joseph and Isaac help students understand how the Bible has inspired people to trust and follow God.

Paul’s Letter to the Romans

A study of the book of Romans, considered by many to be the most powerful of Paul’s writings, with an emphasis on foundational truths of Christianity including a brief study of the doctrine of salvation

Supernatural Living

A study of the Holy Spirit; explanation of the infilling and empowering of the believer by the Holy Spirit; an extensive study of the spiritual gifts including the body offices, the manifestations of the Holy Spirit, and the five-fold ministry offices

Life in Bible Times

This class introduces students to the resources and principles for studying and applying the facts of Bible backgrounds as an important part of the process of biblical interpretation and understanding. Emphasis is given to the geography, history, and culture of the ancient Near East for the Old Testament and the Jewish and Greco-Roman world for the New Testament and their relevance to the scripture.

The Supremacy of Christ

Observing Jesus, our High Priest, in the book of Hebrews; students will study the message of, 'hold on' and 'stand fast' as the writer persuaded his readers to continue on in their faith in Jesus Christ as the true Messiah

The Johannine Literature

An intensive study of the writings of the Apostle John including The Gospel of John, The Book of Revelation, and the Johannine Epistles including I John, II John, and III John.
