

KINEO Ministry Training Center

Course Study Descriptions: Year II

Old Testament Survey

An introduction to the authorship and contents of the Old Testament books. Special attention will be given to important persons, places and events, as well as to key chapters in the Old Testament revelation.

This course will survey the literature, events, and message of the Old Testament, including the organization, historical context, and basic geography of the Old Testament. The student will also be exposed to the foundation that the Old Testament lays for the New Testament and how the promise of the coming Messiah sets the stage for the New Testament.

The Tabernacle

A detailed study concerning the meaning and typical teachings of all the various parts of the Tabernacle with consideration to its construction, structure, furniture, and arrangement; a discovery of how the Tabernacle was designed and patterned by God to present Jesus Christ.

The Tabernacle is a compelling and indispensable visual aid for explaining Christ's work on the Cross.

Foundational Doctrines

A foundational course that surveys basic doctrines of the church with special attention given to key terms, concepts, and biblical texts. This study will include, but is not limited to, subjects such as soteriology, the doctrine of the Trinity, hamartiology, ecclesiology, eschatology, the doctrine of God, the doctrine of Jesus, and the doctrine of the Holy Spirit.

Fundamentals of Evangelism and Outreach

A course designed to help students develop an effective method of evangelism based on scripture; marketplace evangelism; evangelism on the mission field. This course will help a student develop confidence in sharing his/her faith with unbelievers by considering cultural, educational, political, emotional, and religious barriers.

The Authority of the Believer

A discovery of the Kingdom authority bestowed upon a believer by the Lord Jesus Christ at the moment of salvation; a course to help the student realize their covenant rights in Christ as a believer and how to operate out of His authority to live in victory; a study to develop students as ambassadors of the Lord Jesus and to live out of the promises of God's Word.

Students will learn how to walk in the authority of Christ, stand on the Word of God, and minister in the power of Jesus' name with confidence and without fear or intimidation.